

LESSON 1

Who Is Jesus Christ?

V O C A B U L A R Y

While most people think that the Lord Jesus Christ had His “beginning” when He came as a little baby to be born in the stable at Bethlehem, this is not so! It is true, as the books of Matthew and Luke tell us, that Jesus was born of the virgin Mary and that she laid him in the manger in Bethlehem, but God tells us much, much more about His Son. God says that the Lord Jesus Christ has always existed. This means that there never was a time when the Son of God did not exist.

Jesus Christ: The True God

 First, find 1 John 5:20. According to this verse, who is the true God? _____

 Now turn to John 1:1–3 and 14 and answer the following questions from these verses:

- 1. How long has the Word existed? _____
- 2. Who was the Word? _____
- 3. What other verse in the Bible begins with the words “in the beginning”? _____
- 4. According to John 1:3, who made all things? _____

4. According to John 1:3, who made all things? God

Genesis 1:1 says God is the Creator. John 1:3 says that the Word made all things. Since the Word made all things, and the one who made all things is God, and Jesus is the true God, we know that Jesus created all things.

We have learned that Jesus Christ is the true God. He has always lived. We can also see the deity of Christ in the many names given to Jesus that are found in just one chapter in the Bible: John 1. The Bible is filled with hundreds of such references.

Fill in the squares below with the names of Jesus found in these verses.

God's Promises Come True

VOCABULARY

In the last lesson, we learned that Jesus and the Word of God are the same. Before we begin this lesson, write the meaning of the following words. This will help you to understand the ideas that will be discussed.

- God-breathed (Inspiration): _____

- Prophecy: _____

- Testament: _____

The Bible is the complete story of Jesus Christ. God used many different men to write down His Word. He wrote the Bible by “inspiring” men, or giving His message to them and causing them to write His Word. Every word of the Bible is the Word of God.

The Bible can also be seen as a book of books. The whole Bible is made up of 66 books divided into two parts. These are the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament contains 39 books, and the New Testament contains 27. Many of the Old Testament books are very large.

The Old and New Testaments tell of the promise of God to mankind. The Old Testament is a preparation for the coming of Jesus into the world. It prophesies (or foretells) the story of Christ on earth. The New Testament begins with the birth of Christ and fulfills everything that was told (or prophesied) about Jesus in the Old Testament.

The Old Testament continually promises, “Christ will come.” The New Testament says, “Christ has come. Believe in Him.”

Prophecies Fulfilled Concerning Christ's Life

 There were hundreds of prophecies made about the life of Christ in the Old Testament. The following prophecies tell us things about Christ's life. Look up the Old Testament verse and then read the corresponding New Testament passage. Tell what prophecy was fulfilled in each pair of references.

Old Testament	New Testament	Prophecy fulfilled
Micah 5:2	Matthew 2:1
Jeremiah 31:15	Matthew 2:16–18
Hosea 11:1	Matthew 2:13–15
Isaiah 61:1	Luke 4:16–21
Zecharaiah 9:9	Matthew 21:1–10

LESSON 3

The Boy Jesus

VOCABULARY

Growing Up In Nazareth

Very little has been written about the life of Christ when He was young. This was because He was under the care and guidance of Joseph and Mary, just as you are under your parents in God’s chain of command.

Jesus Christ grew up in Nazareth, which was a very small village. Boys and girls in Bible times learned to be obedient to their parents and learned to do many chores to help. The girls did not go to school but stayed with their mothers and learned to do all the household chores. They helped their mothers prepare the meals. The girls went to the village well to pull up water for household use.

On weekdays the boys went to the synagogue, which served as the grade school. They learned to read and write and do arithmetic. A boy learned to read from Old Testament scrolls. For writing he used a sharp stick on wax tablets or wrote with his finger in the sand. The boys sat on the floor near the teacher. Like all Jewish boys, before He was four years old, Jesus had been taught to honor and obey God. Long before boys went to school, they memorized prayers and verses from the Old Testament.

Obeying Those In Authority

Many times boys and girls do not show proper respect to their mothers, fathers, and teachers. Later in life they show no respect for policemen, government leaders, or others God has placed in authority. Read Luke 2:41–52. This is the story of Jesus at the temple when He was twelve years old. Remember that He was truly God in human form. This story shows by His attitude that He thought it was very important to respect and obey His parents and others in authority.

Jesus had passed His twelfth birthday and soon would be called a man. Jewish boys were considered to be adults after they turned thirteen years old. But just before Jesus turned thirteen, the Passover holidays came. Jewish men went to Jerusalem for the special feast days. Some girls and women went too, but the men were required to go.

After Joseph and Mary left for home, Jesus remained in the temple courts. During those days, teachers who served in the temple came out onto the temple porches to discuss God's law. Most Jewish students were not sent away to study the Law until they were fifteen. So it is no wonder that the temple teachers were surprised that twelve-year-old Jesus knew so much. But when Joseph and Mary became worried, returned to Jerusalem, and found Jesus at the temple, He left with them, gladly obeying all the adult leaders God had given Him.
